FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT

The students' feedback of the Final Year has been generated through the Embase – Student's solution App. The data was taken from the individual learner's answer to the three fold questions based on the ranges from very poor to excellent ,grading of the faculty members on different courses in the academic year 2022-23. The data shows a positive approach of the learner towards the institution and the courses under the various programmes.

THE MATRIX

Scale : 5 score

Questions : mandatory based

Method : course based analysis

ANALYSIS

The feedback shows an overall understanding of the faculty members' professional and academic behavior . Faculty members have credited with high average of 90 percentage of classroom transaction on various courses with credible sources of transactional and instructional methedologies.The data exposes the institutional credibility on the instructional technique adopted by the faculty members across disciplines. Each department in the Final Year has been evaluated using the same matrix of three areas of pedagogical practice ie,content delivery ,lesson-preparation and the communication mode. The performance of the faculty members has been appreciated by the learning community since they were awarded with a good grade on the basis of level of content and transactions in the classroom.

The average score obtained by the each Department has been calculated from the aggregate score of the different faculty members in that Department. The overall analysis exposes a high level of content delivery and communication among the learners by the faculty members.
